RE: LANTZ, Kenneth Lee

Dear [REDACTED]:

At your request, I am confirming that Ken Lantz was convicted on 10/22/88 of Harassment, Code #166.065. He was placed on five (5) years probation with certain "special conditions." Specifically, that he be evaluated for sex abuse treatment and that he not associate with boys under the age of 18.

I hope this information is sufficient for your records.

If I can be of further assistance, please call me at [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

Larry E. Cramer

1. Advancement procedures:

Packs. After Den Advancement Reports, No. 3847, are received from den leaders, this form is completed for the entire pack.

Troops. All Boy Scouts ready for advancement must appear personally before a board of review composed of at least three members. An Advancement Report must be sent to the council service center immediately following each board of review. This report must be signed by at least three members of the board of review, including its chairman.

Explorer Units. Explorers should give their advancement applications to their Advisor or Skipper, who in turn takes them to the post committee for approval, then prepares, signs, and forwards this Advancement Report to the council service center.

- Only MEMBERS with unexpired membership certificates can be credited with advancement. Awards are not available to members of units whose charters have expired.
- Fill in name and only one advancement award or merit badge on each line, but list all of one member's advancement consecutively.
- List names of Boy Scouts or Explorers who are applying for Eagle or Sea Explorers applying for Quartermaster and attach applications to this report.
- The pack or troop advancement committee member should interview boys who are not advancing. List these boys on bottom of form.
- No Boy Scout advancement may be earned by female Explorers or by a Boy Scout or male Explorer who has reached the age of 18.
- Sea Explorers may earn Quartermaster through age 20.

To: Council Advancement Committee

I certify that the following record of advancement is correct and meets the standards and requirements of the Boy Scouts of America.

FOR TROOP REPORT: Two additional signatures are required, plus date board of review was held.
